8) Under section 6 of the P. F. Rules 1926, Govt may extend the provisions of the Rules to any Provident fund established for employees under a local authority. The question is whether Palace can be construed as a local authority for the purpose of this Regulation. Under the M.S.R the rules applicable to Local Funds eg. rule of proportions in re leave allowances and pensions of officers are extended to the cases of officers serving partly under Govt and partly under ~~Palace~~ Palace.

But Palace fund is distinguishable from a local fund as defined in sec 11 M.S.R.

If there is no legal objection, the Huzur Secy's proposals, ~~is~~ may be sanctioned.

5.3 (20) Govt ~~have~~ have also defined "Local Authority" as "a municipal Committee, district Board, or other authority legally entitled to, or entrusted by the Govt with, control or management of a municipal or local fund".

No Palace cannot be construed to be brought within this defn.

If necessary, the Provident Fund Regn (IX of 1917) should have to be amended.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that according to rule 5 of the Mysore State Provident Fund Rules (extracted overleaf) the rates of interest can be altered by Government only after six months' notice of the alteration is given to subscribers. This rule was in conformity with the rule in British India where also six months' notice was necessary before any alteration ~~in~~ in rate could be given effect to (vide rule 6 of the rules regulating the General Provident Fund). The Government of India have recently ordered in their resolution No.F-37-V.R.II dated 10th March 1930 (page 205 of the Government of India Gazette dated 15th March 1930) that the interest on General Provident Fund and other similar funds will in future be liable to revision on the 1st of April each year without notice, and that a further resolution explaining the change in method will be published in the course of the next financial year. The condition in our rule requiring issue of six months' notice before alteration in rates can be given effect to is rather inconvenient. I would suggest that the existing rule 5 may be suitably amended so as to enable Government to revise the rate of interest without notice from the beginning of an official year or with six months' notice from other dates.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

S. Shamanna
Comptroller.

Government reserve the power of altering the rates of interest whenever they consider it necessary subject to six months' notice being given to subscribers before any alteration is made."
